UNAIDS TERMS AND CONDITIONS

1. INTRODUCTION

UNAIDS, the Joint United Nations Programme on HIV/AIDS, is an innovative joint venture of the United Nations system, bringing together the efforts and resources of ten UN system organizations in the AIDS response to help the world prevent new HIV infections, care for people living with HIV, and mitigate the impact of the epidemic. These organizations, called “UNAIDS Cosponsors” are UNHCR, UNICEF, WFP, UNDP, UNFPA, UNODC, UN Women, ILO, UNESCO, WHO and the World Bank.

UNAIDS is an organization that is dependent on the budgetary and extra-budgetary contributions it receives for the implementation of its activities. Bidders are therefore requested to propose the best and most cost-effective solution to meet UNAIDS requirements, while ensuring a high level of service.

For more information about UNAIDS please consult our website www.unaids.org.

2. RFQ DETAILS

The purpose of this RFQ is to select suitable supplier for the procurement of National Strategic Information Consultant for UNAIDS Country Office Nepal

Duty Station: Kathmandu, Nepal

Duration of work: August 1, 2024 – July 31, 2025 (12 months)

The Joint United Nations Programme on HIV/AIDS (UNAIDS) aims to end AIDS as a public health threat by 2030, focusing on reducing inequalities as outlined in the Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs). This effort ensures equitable access to HIV services, removes barriers to HIV outcomes, and integrates HIV responses into broader health and protection systems.

In Nepal, UNAIDS supports the Government, civil society, and other partners in shaping HIV priorities through strategic information, policy, planning, technical guidance, community-led efforts, and resource mobilization. The UNAIDS Country Office (UCO) provides leadership and coordinates the expanded UN system response on HIV, emphasizing the effective use of strategic information (SI) to understand and track the epidemic, measure progress, and ensure sustainable impact. It also collaborates with and supports efforts to strengthen community capacities, engage them in health, social protection, and human rights mechanisms, and provides technical guidance to national partners and policymakers.

Since 1996, the UCO has been a longstanding technical partner, continuously supporting the Government of Nepal, civil society, and other partners in shaping the country's HIV response. A Proposal that is rejected by UNAIDS may not be made responsive by the Bidder by correction of the non-conformity. A responsive proposal is defined as one which conforms to all the terms and conditions of the UNAIDS Proposal solicitation documents without material deviations. UNAIDS shall determine the responsiveness of each Bid with the UNAIDS Proposal solicitation documents.

6. UNAIDS TERMS AND CONDITIONS

The following general conditions shall apply to any eventual contract. No other deemed conditions shall apply.

GENERAL CONDITIONS

1. It is understood that the execution of the work does not create any employer/employee relationship. In this respect, the contractor shall be solely responsible for the manner in which the work is carried out. Thus, UNAIDS and/or WHO shall not be responsible for any loss, accident, damage or injury suffered by any person whatsoever arising in or out of the execution of this work, including travel. Insurance coverage for any such loss, accident, damage or injury will be the contractor's responsibility, including where appropriate, insurance coverage for persons used by the contractor to carry out the work.

Without prejudice to the foregoing, UNAIDS may in certain cases provide insurance coverage for the contractor for travel in UNAIDS and/or WHO vehicles. UNAIDS and/or WHO decline all responsibility for non-payment by the insurance company of all or part of a claim submitted by or for the contractor for any accident. In case of such non-payment, the contractor shall be obliged to immediately reimburse all or part of any advance which UNAIDS may have paid to the contractor.

2. All rights in the work, including ownership of the original work and copyright thereof, shall be vested in UNAIDS, which reserves the right (a) to revise the work, (b) to use the work in a different way from that originally envisaged, or (c) not to publish or use the work.
3. If the option, on the face of this agreement, for payment of a fixed sum applies, that sum is payable in the manner provided, subject to proper performance of the work. If the option for payment of a maximum amount applies, the funds shall be used exclusively for the work specified in this agreement and any unspent balance shall be refunded to UNAIDS. In this latter case, any financial statement required shall reflect expenditures according to the relevant main categories of expenditure. Contractors who are legal entities (hereinafter referred to as "Company Contractors") must submit an invoice to UNAIDS in order to receive payment. Invoices are not required from contractors who are individuals (hereinafter referred to as "Individual Contractors") who can be paid upon receipt by UNAIDS of the required deliverables (including any required technical reports and financial statements) in a satisfactory manner.

The invoice from Company Contractors shall reflect any tax exemption to which UNAIDS and/or WHO may be entitled by reason of the immunity it enjoys. UNAIDS and WHO, which provides administrative services to UNAIDS, are, as a general rule, exempt from all direct taxes, custom duties and the like, and the Company Contractor will consult with UNAIDS so as to avoid the imposition of such charges with respect to this agreement and the work performed hereunder. As regards excise duties and other taxes imposed on the provision of goods and services (e.g. value added tax), the Company Contractor agrees to verify in consultation with UNAIDS whether in the country where the tax would be payable, UNAIDS and/or WHO are exempt from such tax at the source, or entitled to claim reimbursement thereof. If UNAIDS and/or WHO are exempt from value added tax, this shall be indicated on the invoice, whereas if UNAIDS and/or WHO can claim reimbursement thereof, the Company Contractor agrees to list such charges on its invoices as a separate item and, to the extent required, cooperate with UNAIDS and/or WHO to enable reimbursement thereof.

UNAIDS and/or WHO shall have no responsibility whatsoever for any taxes, duties or other contributions payable by contractors. Payment of any taxes, duties and other contributions which a contractor may be required to pay shall be the sole responsibility of the contractor who shall not be entitled to any reimbursement thereof by UNAIDS and/or WHO.

4. If the work is not satisfactorily completed (and, where applicable, delivered) by the date fixed in this agreement and/or if any financial statement required is not satisfactorily submitted to UNAIDS in accordance with general condition 5 below, UNAIDS may specify an additional period within which this agreement must be satisfactorily performed. Normally such additional period should be of at least one week's duration, unless it is clear from the agreement that it was particularly important that the performance be completed on the date specified, in which case UNAIDS may specify a shorter period or refuse to grant any additional period at all. In the event that the work is not satisfactorily completed and delivered on the date fixed, or any additional period granted by UNAIDS and/or if any financial statement required is not satisfactorily submitted to UNAIDS in accordance with general condition 5 below, UNAIDS may rescind this agreement (in addition to the other remedies), subject to an equitable arrangement being made in case of delay caused by force majeure.
5. The contractor shall complete and deliver the work to UNAIDS (including any technical report that may be required) by the date fixed in this agreement or any additional period that may be granted by UNAIDS under general condition 4. Any financial statement required shall be submitted within thirty (30) days thereafter at the latest. If the payment schedule on the face of this agreement provides for a final payment upon completion of the work, this final payment shall be made only after satisfactory receipt of all deliverables called for under this agreement, including any technical report and financial statement.
6. Each Individual Contractor certifies that he/she does not presently, and will not during the term of this agreement, hold any form of contractual relationship with UNAIDS and/or WHO (including any UNAIDS and/or WHO regional, country or project office, as well as any programme, center or other entity where staff is subject to WHO Staff Regulations and Rules) that confers upon the Individual Contractor the status of a UNAIDS and/or WHO staff member. The Individual Contractor understands that a false statement may result in the cancellation of any or all contracts, and/or the withdrawal of any offer of a contract with UNAIDS and/or WHO.
7. If and to the extent the work to be performed under this agreement includes surveys or interviews involving human participants (hereinafter referred to as "research"), the following shall apply:

7.1 Ethical Aspects

It is the responsibility of the contractor to safeguard the rights and welfare of human subjects involved in research performed under this agreement, in accordance with the appropriate national code of ethics or legislation, if any, and in the absence thereof, the Helsinki Declaration and any subsequent amendments. deemed acceptable by a panel of independent experts appointed by the contractor, and (d) any special national requirements have been met.

8. Any dispute relating to the interpretation or application of this agreement shall, unless amicably settled, be subject to conciliation. In the event of failure of the latter, the dispute shall be settled by arbitration. The arbitration shall be conducted in accordance with the modalities to be agreed upon by the parties or, in the absence of agreement, with the Rules of Arbitration of the International Chamber of Commerce. The parties shall accept the arbitral award as final.

9. Nothing contained in or relating to this agreement shall be deemed to constitute a waiver of any of the privileges and immunities enjoyed by UNAIDS and/or WHO and/or as submitting UNAIDS and/or WHO to any national court or jurisdiction
